UPDATES!

Hello! It's me, UNIKO!

This quarter has been one of our busiest yet. From real workplace experiences and industry partnerships to community events and preparations for our biggest fundraiser events, our trainees continued building confidence, independence, and practical employment skills.

In this issue, I'll share how your support helped create meaningful opportunities that prepare our trainees for life beyond the training rooms.

QUARTER IN FOCUS

This quarter reflected UNIKLEARN's continued commitment to preparing neurodivergent individuals for meaningful employment through many learning opportunities. From April to June, Trainees managed to strengthened their workplace readiness through various trainings such as vocational skills, hospitality skills & retail skills! These opportunities allowed trainees to apply what they learned in real environments while building confidence, independence, and employability.

Our trainees also had the opportunity to explore different cultures through hands-on learning experiences with our new friends. From making traditional Timor-Aimanas Chilli Sauce to crafting colourful Luk Chup, these activities allowed them to build new skills while appreciating the diversity of different cultures.

HIGHLIGHTS & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

One of the key highlights this quarter was our Raya Open Centre, where we welcomed invited guests to experience UNIKLEARN firsthand. The event provided an opportunity for visitors to meet our trainees, witness their growth, and see the skills they have developed through their training.

WHERE OUR GRADUATES ARE NOW?

HAZIQ INTERNSHIP AT IMAGINE HQ

A proud milestone this quarter was seeing Haziq, a 2025 UNIKLEARN alumnus, begin his internship at ImagineHQ. This opportunity reflects the progress he has made throughout his journey at UNIKLEARN and marks another important step towards meaningful employment and greater independence.

OUR PARTNERS & SUPPORTERS!

UNIKLEARN's work would not be possible without the support of partners, donors, and sponsors through training sponsorships, event collaborations, venue access, equipment, and professional expertise.

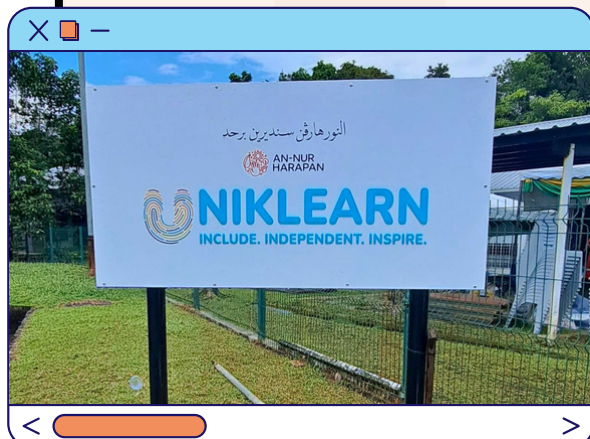

IN-KIND CONTRIBUTION FROM UNITY CHARITY

Thank you, Unity Charity, for donating Mesh WiFi Routers to support our centre's connectivity needs. Your contribution has made it easier for us to use our wireless printers and improve our daily operations.

NEW SIGNAGE BY PRO-BUILDER

We are grateful to Pro-Builder for sponsoring our new signage and mailbox. Your support has helped enhance our centre and create a more welcoming space for our trainees and visitors. Thank you for being part of our journey.

EVENING OF CELEBRATION & GIVING

Thank you, Madam Ana, wife of the Timor-Leste Ambassador, for hosting a wonderful birthday celebration and supporting our fundraising efforts by selling the Timor-Aimanas chilli sauce we made together. We truly appreciate your kindness and generosity.

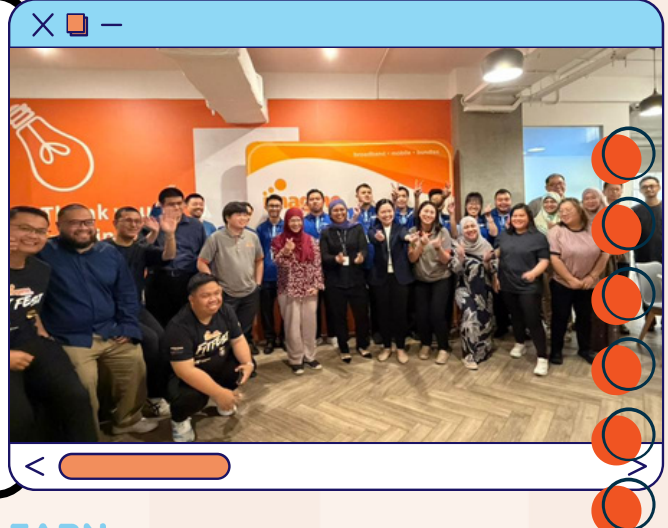

RETAIL TRAINING WITH KENSINGTON BN

Our trainees gained valuable hands-on retail experience through their training with Kensington BN, building practical skills and confidence in a real workplace environment.

IMAGINE AWARENESS TALK

We had the opportunity to deliver an awareness talk, "Preparing Your Employees for Success," to the team at Imagine. The session also gave our trainees the chance to engage in meaningful conversations with Imagine employees, helping them build confidence, communication skills, and real-world social interactions.

JUNE

HOSPITALITY TRAINING AT MULIA HOTEL

Our trainees are gaining valuable real-world experience through hands-on training at Mulia Hotel.

From housekeeping and concierge services to customer service, they're building practical skills and confidence to prepare for future employment.

MAKING LUK CHUP WITH ROYAL THAI EMBASSY

A heartfelt thank you to the Royal Thai Embassy for visiting our An-Nur Harapan Centre and sharing the joy of making Luk Chup, one of Thailand's most iconic traditional desserts. It was a wonderful cultural learning experience for our trainees, and we truly appreciate your time, kindness, and support.

RETAIL TRAINING WITH CUCKOO AT 33RD CONSUMER FAIR

Thank you, Cuckoo, for giving our UNIKLEARN trainees the opportunity to gain valuable retail experience at one of Brunei's biggest events. We truly appreciate your support in empowering our trainees with hands-on learning and meaningful real-world experiences.
